Certificates

Frozen Fruits and Vegetables

The Sakr Group is a top provider of food and drink, with over 150 goods in 15 categories and six unique brands. We successfully operate a factory dedicated to processing frozen vegetables, taking full advantage of Egypt's agricultural output. This factory processes a wide range of locally grown vegetables. Additionally, we distribute fresh produce such as strawberries, oranges, and tomatoes, further highlighting the richness of Egypt's agricultural offerings.

Sakr Group transforms freshly harvested Egyptian produce into convenient, high-quality frozen products that retain their natural goodness. We have established a strong export presence, supplying frozen vegetables to various markets across the globe. Our commitment to excellence in this category underscores our dedication to providing high-quality products that cater to the evolving tastes of consumers.
